New EVC Client

The Economic Vitality Corporation continues to help entrepreneurs start and expand businesses through its business loan program in partnership with local banks -- up to $8 million to date. The EVC is pleased to welcome its newest client, Beach Butlerz.

BEACH BUTLERZ

In partnership with Mission Community Bank, the EVC helped provide a business loan to Cecile and Michael DeMartini of Beach Butlerz. Beach Butlerz is a service that enables beach goers to rent all the beach essentials from a kiosk on the beach while "butlers" take the items ordered out to the beach for them. "Our goal is to deliver beachgoers with the best memorable beach experience that they'll never forget," explained Cecile DeMartini, Chief Beach Officer of Beach Butlerz, "and we're excited to be teaming with other SLO County businesses to make that happen." www.beachbutlerz.com

KEEP IT SIMPLE (OR IT WON'T GET DONE)

By Ed Cox

Vistage

May 2011

When is the last time you felt overwhelmed by all the things you need to do? Was it today? Life is so much more complex than even five years ago (before email and LinkedIn and Facebook came to our smart phones). If we could only simplify and have a few things to do, could we get more done?

CALIFORNIA LOSES 572,400 MANUFACTURING JOBS IN DECADE

By G. Scott Thomas
Sacramento Business Journal
May 26, 2011

The biggest drop was in California, which lost 572,400 manufacturing jobs in 10 years -- going to 1,244,000 jobs in April 2011 from 1,816,400 jobs in April 2001. Between April 2010 and 2011, the state gained 10,900 jobs, though. Eighteen states, including California, watched at least 100,000 manufacturing jobs slip away during the past decade. The biggest drops after California were in Michigan (down 348,600) and Ohio (down 345,600).
