

Gerry Frigon, President and Chief Investment Officer, Taylor Frigon

Gerry Frigon is the President and Chief Investment Officer of Taylor Frigon Capital Management. He has over 22 years of professional investment experience.

Prior to founding Taylor Frigon, Gerry was a portfolio manager at Merrill Lynch. For the past fourteen years, he has managed portfolios with the same disciplined process directly descended from the classic growth philosophy developed by Richard C. Taylor and Thomas Rowe Price.

During his time at Merrill Lynch, Gerry was consistently recognized as one of the top advisors at the firm.

He received his Bachelor of Arts in Business and Economics from the University of California at Santa Barbara in 1985.

Taylor Frigon Capital Management LLC is an SEC-registered investment advisory firm that helps private investors build wealth and create multigenerational financial legacies. We offer individuals, families, and businesses a unique combination of wealth planning, in-house investment management and private banking/family office services, together with the highest quality personal attention. Our extensive experience in making every day decisions regarding investment in businesses affords us a particular value and insight that extends beyond portfolio management and into wealth allocation decisions for our clients.
